Herzing University and Guardian Credit Union partner to offer exclusive scholarship benefits to its members and employees.

West Milwaukee, WI — [Oct 29, 2014]: Guardian Credit Union and Herzing University have partnered to offer more than 36,000 members and employees of GCU an ongoing 10% tuition reduction scholarship on all undergraduate and graduate degree programs. Members and staff will also receive savings on continuing education and certification preparation classes along with waived enrollment fees for all programs.

“We are excited to offer this benefit to our members and staff,” stated Steve Wesson, CEO and President of Guardian Credit Union. “We understand the importance of education and the impact it has on building a sustainable community.”

“Herzing selected GCU to be its partner because of our shared values,” stated Renee Herzing, President and CEO of Herzing University. “Both organizations support hardworking individuals with diverse backgrounds who have the goal to better themselves for the benefit of their families and their communities.”
